The President's STEERING COLUMN

Hi everyone .

We need to thank Don Albrecht for a very nice Fall color drive and a birthday party for Walt Thompson as he turns 90.

We had a very big turn out. Let's keep it up.

Well it's November and time for election. I would like to have a big showing like last month. This doesn't mean you have to be elected for an office but that would be great.

I am still trying to get the King 5 Harvest thing together with other people. I'm thinking of just getting everyone to meet at one place and go to one collection place as a group. If anyone has any questions, call me. (425-646-9034)

Jerry Walker.

PLEASE NOTE:
There will probably not be another newsletter before the Christmas party

SECRETARY'S SCRABBLIES

Our October outing was our annual Fall Colors Tour on Sunday, October 13th. A fun outing that Donovan organized again this year. We met at the Issaquah Fish Hatchery and toured from there. Made a stop at Snoqualmie Falls and ended at the Country Pride restaurant in North Bend for dinner and a birthday party for Walt. Fall colors were elusive, but well in evidence at the falls. Seven Studebakers and 26 enthusiasts participated in all or part of this event. Some came expressly to wish Walt a happy 90th birthday. No formal club meeting was held. Our next meeting will be at the Berry's where we will be electing officers for 2020. And, we will be able to feast our eyes on some very nice older cars in the Berry's garages. At a lesser level, I'll bring pictures of my '37 that I painted a few days ago. Nice to finally have it all one color.

See you at the Berry's.

God Bless, Don Andersen, Secretary
